5-7 April 2007

Capuchin Retreat
Washington, Michigan

New York Capuchin Michael Marigliano will offer four reflections on the question, "How does Jesus' death save us?" His presentations will access the deep well of Catholic theology and compare our Catholic tradition to recent popular presentations in books and movies like Mel Gibson's The Passion of Christ. Michael will help retreatants connect Jesus' death to the message of his life.

Of course, the heart and soul of the Triduum Retreat are the sacred liturgies of this holy week. Following supper, we will celebrate the Holy Thursday eucharist followed by a eucharistic procession and adoration. Good Friday includes the traditional service and the Way of the Cross. After a few sessions on Holy Saturday, retreatants will join worshipers at the Solanus Center chapel in Detroit for the Easter Vigil Service.

Our retreat director, Capuchin Michael Marigliano.
