Capuchin Vocation Update Province of St. Joseph

Muriel Jones retires as Vocation Office secretary

June 28th is Muriel Jones' last day working as secretary for the Capuchin Vocation Office at its Mt. Calvary, Wisconsin office. Muriel worked 28 years for the province, 8 at St. Lawrence Seminary serving Capuchins Kenan Siegel and Oliver Bambenek, and 20 for the Capuchin Vocation Office. Current vocation directors John Holly and Bill Hugo are extremely grateful to Muriel for two decades of faithful service, and wish her the best in retirement.

With Muriel's retirement, the Vocation Office in Mt. Calvary will close, and a new office will be opened in Chicago.

Over the past 20 years, Muriel worked with these vocation directors:

- Kevin Bartrom
- Michael Bertram
- Kenneth Casper
- Mark Joseph Costello
- John Holly
- William Hugo
- Gerry Kafer
- Paul Koenig
- Rob Roemer
- David Schwab
