Capuchin Vocation Update Province of St. Joseph

An investiture photo album

On July 29th, twenty-six men from Australia, Guam, Canada, and the United States were invested in the Capuchin habit at St. Francis Friary in Burlington, Wisconsin. Seven of the group are members of the Midwest Capuchin Province of St. Joseph. This issue of Vocation Update offers a photo album of the event.

The newly invested from the Midwest Capuchins: (l-r) Mark Romanowski, Tom Nguyen, Mitchell Frantz, Don Bosco Tran, Joseph Lindzius, Tien Dinh, George Real Bird.

Some of the novices-to-be, waiting for their new habits. Capuchin Leopold Gleissner (rt) came to support the new novices.

All 26 habits, waiting for new novices

Professed Capuchins from the crowd helped the new novices to put on their habits.

Vocation Update

All 26 novices with their four directors. Too many names to list!!!!

Other visitors Mark Joseph Costello, Jerry Johnson & David Hirt

The new novices obliged when the photographer asked for a little attitude.

PLEASE PRAY FOR our new postulants who begin their postulancy on August 19th in Chicago:

Julio Gallegos
David Hirt
Suedi Murekezi
Eric Renaud

Don't forget to attend the last Chicago summer BBQ: Sunday, September 2nd. Friars from Milwaukee & Chicago areas are invited to close out summer with us. Please attend!

Put the upcoming Detroit Ministry weekend in your calendar. This event is designed for candidates who have never visited Capuchin ministries or communities in Detroit. Come and learn about a new part of the province!

October 26-28
