

28 Aug, 2007, #132

Capuchin Vocation Update Province of St. Joseph

4 become Capuchin postulants

On August 23rd, Julio Gallegos, David Hirt, Suedi Murekizi, and Sean Gorst (from the Capuchin Province in Toronto) were officially received as Capuchin Postulants in a ceremony at St. Clare of Assisi Friary in Chicago, Illinois.

capuchinfranciscans.org

1-773-475-6206

KingPoets

David Hirt has been asked to chronicle his experiences in the Capuchin Postulancy by the Internet forum www.KingPoets.com

To follow his entries you must join the forum which is free and safe, reports David. After joining, enter David's forum called "The Coffee Shop". David manages other forums using the handle Cappuchino, but you can see and visit "The Coffee Shop" only by joining. As of this printing, David already has 2 entries.

DON'T FORGET TO ATTEND the last Chicago summer BBQ: Sunday, September 2nd. Friars from Milwaukee & Chicago areas are invited to close out summer with us. Greet Capuchin novices from Australia, Guam, Canada and USA, including our own, who will attend!

Contact Fr. John Holly to attend:

920-915-4400 jholly1953@yahoo.com

The 2008 edition of the vocation guide called Vision is free and available for order at:

<http://www.vocation-network.org/>

For ideas on how to use the guide with religious ed students see the Aug. 29, 2005 edition of Vocation Update

Vocation Awareness Week is January 8-12, 2008. Without advance planning your ministry might miss the chance to effectively use this week to promote vocations to church ministries. Consider using the Vision guide in your religious ed program. You can order as many free copies as you need.

To order Capuchin vocation materials, visit our webpage:

<http://www.capuchinfranciscans.org/subordervocationliterature.html>