Capuchin Vocation Update Province of St. Joseph

Bro. Jerry Johnson Joins Vocation Office Staff

Fr. John Holly

Bro. Jerry Johnson

Capuchin Bro. Jerry Johnson is joining Fr. John Holly as a Vocation Director for the Midwest Capuchins replacing Fr. Bill Hugo who is becoming Postulant Director in Milwaukee. Jerry is originally from Huntington, Indiana and most recently taught in the Math department of St. Lawrence Seminary in Mt. Calvary, Wisconsin.

Jerry remarked, "Every Capuchin has the responsibility to promote vocations to our Order. Now it's my turn to do it in a special way as a Vocation Director. I'm very enthused about beginning this new ministry."

The Vocation Office and all our Capuchin candidates welcome Jerry to vocation ministry.

The Vocation Office thanks Bill Hugo for his recent service as vocation director. This last four-year stint is actually Bill's third time as vocation director. Bill founded and edited Vocation Update and modernized the office's promotional efforts, paying particular attention to the religious aspirations of the millennial generation.

Thanks, Bill, for all that you've done.
